

Air Conditioning Bowling Boost

With the temperatures soaring into the nineties, and kids wanting to beat the heat, the Cohasset Community Center introduced their latest renovation feature — an air conditioner in the bowling alleys.

Director of Bowling, Bill O'Connell said, "The cooler temperature makes bowling a pleasure at a time when it's too hot outdoors for even just standing around." To make everything even more enjoyable, Bill announced a "Summer special for the month of August — three strings for a dollar, the best deal in town."

The alleys will be open from 3 to 5 p.m. every afternoon and from 7 to 10 p.m. each evening. Of course, the senior citizens keep cool, bowling as a league every Wednesday morning. The Center welcomes any new groups and will open the alleys and the "air" for any special interest group. For information, call Bill O'Connell at 383-0088 or 383-1586.
